Dear Versatile,

Your Apple ID, info@versatilestudios.com, was just used to purchase Connect for Sonos from the Mac App Store on a computer or device that had not previously been used. You may also be receiving this email if you reset your password since your last purchase.

If you made this purchase, or have reset your Apple ID password since your last purchase, you can disregard this email.

If you did not make this purchase, or believe someone may have accessed your account, go to (<https://appleid.apple.com>) and change your password as soon as possible.

Regards,
Apple
